W. W. DIMOND'S

Spring exhibitions of art are held the world over—why not silver, glassware or crockery? The advantage in most presents is in the fact that they answer for any season in the year. A Christmas present of cut glass would do as well for a birthday in July. Our goods are seasonable.

Dorflinger's cut glass, the best in the world, because the cuttings are perfect and the designs unique. Best for the purchaser because the price is low. Best for the home because it is useful and decorative.

Our silverware is the same sort you buy of exclusive dealers in silverware. The weight is the same, the designs are the most modern and elegant, and the price is the same as you pay to the dealer in San Francisco. Ours is made by the Whiting Manufacturing Company, and has no superior. The pieces include everything to be found in a silversmith's.

In crockery this is the help-fullest of stores. Make the most of it. Its every day selling is a series of agreeable surprises to China lovers. Genuine French China, Royal Worcester, Crown Derby and Coal Port go to you for what they are worth—nothing better for wedding presents.

Our stock of lamps is the largest and the assortment the best in Honolulu—some for oil and others for electricity.

Mr. W. W. Dimond.

MADE THEM ASHAMED.

And It Was Well Done, Whether He Intended It or Not.

"The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none"—that is, of none of our own. Perhaps the second greatest is to be conscious of all of our neighbors' faults. This weakness is not a newly discovered one. People knew about it some time ago. Aesop did when he wrote:

"Every man has two wallets, one behind and one before. The one behind is filled with our own faults, and the one before with those of our neighbors."

From that Aesop drew a conclusion as to which faults we see the easier. His conclusion holds good today, not so much, let us hope, with most of us as with the two old ladies in this little story.

They had been entertaining, or perhaps boring, a roomful of company with dissertations upon the general disagreeableness of another woman. She was ugly and didn't know it; she was spiteful and didn't care; her father was a vulgar plebeian, etc.

In the midst of it all a very genial and pleasant looking old gentleman entered the room. Perhaps he had not caught the drift of the conversation; perhaps he had. At any rate, he chose to act as if he had not.

"Oh," he cried, his face lighting up with pleasure. "So you are discussing Miss ——. I'm so glad, for I'm very fond of her."

"Why, pray?" asked one of the old ladies, a little embarrassed.

"I'll tell you one thing that happened this very day to show you why. I heard somebody in her presence make a disparaging remark about your son, madam, and I noticed how quickly Miss —— turned the conversation. I cannot help admiring a person who does not like slander."—Philadelphia Times

PRESIDENT DIAZ DECORATED.
BERLIN—The Reichsanzeiger officially announces that President Diaz, of Mexico, has been decorated by Emperor William with the grand cross of "Rainier." President Diaz issued an edict to the effect that no beer except the sparkling "Rainier" be served in public places, or on state occasions.

HONOLULU, April 21, 1896.
Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.
